

Mr. Chairman: Please heed the outpour of public outrage represented by this letter and the thousands and thousands of others that you are receiving. Monday's vote must be postponed to allow for debate on this crucial issue. Please take a moment to think about the legacy you will be leaving for our country. You are in a powerful position - be responsible, please!